

Title: Analyst (Entry Level), Client Services Group
Location: San Francisco
Email: sf_analyst@hallcapital.com

Firm Overview

Hall Capital Partners is a privately owned registered investment advisor that builds and manages multi-asset class global investment portfolios for individuals, families, and institutions. We direct more than $19 billion in investment assets for our advisory clients and funds of funds investors. Founded in 1994, our approximately 100+ employees operate from offices in San Francisco and New York. We are typically responsible for investment strategy, asset allocation, and portfolio construction for a globally diversified investment portfolio. For many clients, we also contribute significantly to other aspects of financial strategy, such as managing and diversifying concentrated public stock positions, wealth transfer and philanthropic strategies, and similar matters. Our culture is centered on integrity, client focus, performance, and understanding our fiduciary responsibilities.

The Client Services group includes forty-nine professionals who support the Portfolio Management practice in servicing clients, working closely with senior professionals on monitoring and reporting client investment performance.

Our investment philosophy and approach are rooted in the experience of investing across several economic and investment cycles and the knowledge that outstanding opportunities can be identified and exploited at all points in these cycles. Over its history, Hall Capital Partners has worked hard to foster relationships within the investment management community to establish the Firm's reputation as a high-quality fundamental investor and partner. This work has resulted in ongoing deal flow in all asset classes, as well as periodically generating opportunities that do not adhere to standard investment categories. These opportunities can include start-up funds, niche strategies, secondary interests, direct investments, and others.

Job Description

The Client Services group is seeking bright, motivated professionals to join our team. Client Services Analysts report directly to the Vice Presidents of Client Services.
